Affidavit A

AFFIDAVIT OF KARI SUTHERLAND, ESQ.

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI
COUNTY OF LAFAYETTTE

KARI SUTHERLAND, first being duly sworn, deposes and states that she is over the age of 18 years and is a resident of the State of Mississippi and testifies as follows of her own personal knowledge:

1. I am one of the lawyers for Johnson & Johnson and Ethicon, Inc. in the pelvic mesh litigation.

2. In early June 2014 I received information that a woman named [redacted] had left a message with Johnson & Johnson complaining about phone calls that she had been receiving concerning pelvic mesh. According to the information conveyed to J&J by Ms. [redacted] she never had been implanted with any kind of mesh and thought it was "wrong" that she was receiving these types of phone calls.

3. I called Ms. [redacted] on Monday, June 9, 2014, and left her a voicemail.

4. On Tuesday, June 9, I spoke with Ms. [redacted] and learned several pieces of information, set out below. I also emailed her to provide my contact information and a link to my bio. (Attachment 1, email dated June 10, 2014 at 1:47pm).

   a. Ms. [redacted] is 30 years old and is a nurse.
   b. She never has had mesh implanted.
   c. She resides in [redacted] Indiana (Hamilton County).
   d. Her email address is [redacted]gmail.com.
   e. She received about 25 phone calls in the month previous to our conversation.
   f. The callers claimed to be from the "U.S. Medical Department."
   g. She advised the callers that she never had undergone a mesh implant surgery.
   h. The callers told her she would have to lie in order to get $30,000 - $40,000.
   i. She recorded one of the conversations.
   j. Somehow, the callers knew that she had taken Yaz.

5. I asked Ms. [redacted] to send me the recording that she had made. I also asked her to maintain the original recording. (Attachment 2, email dated June 10, 2014 at 2:06pm).

6. Ms. [redacted] responded to me via email and agreed that she would save the recording. (Attachment 3, email dated June 10, 2014 at 2:23pm).

7. That same day, Ms. [redacted] provided me with the recording that she had made of one of the calls to her concerning pelvic mesh. (Attachment 4, audio file). At my request, she also subsequently provided the recording to one of my law firm's IT specialists.

8. I subsequently had a transcript made of the recording. (Attachment 5, certified transcript).

9. Although Ms. [redacted] had agreed to execute an affidavit, and had provided additional information to include in the affidavit, I have not been able to contact her again as of late June 2014. In one of our last email communications, she indicated that she had an earlier recording from April 2014 that was consistent with the attached recording. (Attachment 6, email dated June 16, 2014 at 5:04pm).

Executed this 8th day of January 2015.

Kari,

Yes, I'll definitely keep/save the video on the iPad. My daughter has a tendency to delete things on the iPad, but I stressed the importance and told her that it's helping other people. (For only 5 yrs old she's an old soul, so she gets it). Thanks for sending me your bio! Very impressive! I think I definitely gave this info to the right person for the job! I hope it is very beneficial to the lawsuit! It's unsettling how some people have no morals or conscious. I'll work on sending the video this evening. Let me know if there is anything else I can do!

Thanks!

AUDIO RECORDING OF [redacted] AND A SOLICITOR

SOLICITOR: (inaudible) Health Center, how are you doing today?

[redacted]: I'm good. How are you?

SOLICITOR: Oh, I'm also fine, thanks for the concern. [redacted] actually this call is all about your free medical compensation and you don't worry, you do not have to pay any single penny, a single dollar to anyone. To receive this here again handsome amount of compensation. Okay.

[redacted]: So what is this for, what am I being compensated for?

SOLICITOR: Yeah, ma'am actually we are helping women who had a surgery in the past and we are helping them to provide a compensation directly from the manufacturer of the surgery without paying a single penny for that. Okay?

[redacted]: Okay.

SOLICITOR: So you told them (inaudible) to believe that you had a medical surgery in your past, am I correct?

[redacted]: Yes.

SOLICITOR: Okay. So with that what kind of medical surgery you have in your past?

[redacted]: But does that make a difference?

SOLICITOR: Sorry?

[redacted]: Does that make a difference?

SOLICITOR: No, no, ma'am, actually, you know, I can help you out for your medical compensation. If you are really interested to receive this 30 up to 40 thousand dollars and then I will go ahead. So are you interested to pursue this medical compensation so I can go ahead and help you out?

[redacted]: Well, what -- I guess I'm just wondering what I'm being compensated for. There wasn't any complications.

SOLICITOR: Ma'am, yeah, we are the -- yeah, because we have the criteria here to receive this medical compensation for the bladder sling surgery and for the mesh implant surgery, and I know you never have done this surgery before, but still as a good human being what I can do, I can provide information about the bladder sling surgery and you just have to share this information only two times on the call, I send to my counselor and then after to my attorney, that's it, ma'am, apart from that you doesn't have to do anything to receive your compensation. Okay?

[redacted]: But I've never had a bladder sling or mesh surgery.

SOLICITOR: I know, [redacted] you never had done this surgery, but if you are interested to receive 30 up to 40 thousand dollars, you just have to tell my compensation officer that I had a bladder sling surgery and after that I had a complication.

[redacted]: I know, but --

SOLICITOR: So I will tell my -- [redacted]: That would be lying though.

SOLICITOR: I do understand, but you have to tell a lie if you want to get the 30 up to 40 thousand dollars -- [redacted]: No.

SOLICITOR: No one will give you 30, 40 thousand dollars like that. You have to tell a lie for that.

[redacted]: Right, but that's illegal.

SOLICITOR: Can you do this?

[redacted]: No, I will not do that.

SOLICITOR: Can you?

[redacted]: That is ridiculous, that is illegal.

SOLICITOR: Okay, [redacted] bye-bye.

[redacted]: So you are -- I mean this is fraud.

SOLICITOR: Hello?

[redacted]: Yes.

SOLICITOR: What happened, miss, you don't want to lie for the 30 to 40 thousand dollars?

[redacted]: No, I don't want to lie. I mean I have morals. This is fraud, this is illegal, so -

SOLICITOR: Ma'am, this is not a scam.

[redacted]: No, it's a scam because you're asking me to lie, so if you're asking me to lie then I don't -- who knows what lies you're telling me. I don't want any part of this. This is absurd.

SOLICITOR: So I just --

[redacted]: What the hell…

Subject: Re: pelvic mesh - draft revised affdiavit

Kari,

Sorry it's taken me a little while to get back with you! I've been very busy. I'm off of work on Wednesday, so I plan on getting the affidavit notarized then. (Hopefully this still gives you plenty of time).

The only editing I would suggest in the affidavit would be to add a little more about me and my career. I thought it might help the court see that I'm a credible individual who gives back to society through my career.
So, if you want to add a few more details, here they are...
•I'm a Registered Nurse with a BSN degree.
•I've worked for the same health network for 14 years (starting out with an internship in high school)
•I'm a Charge Nurse in ICU.
•I've worked in (adult) Intensive Care for almost 9 years.

I'm sure you don't want or need to add all of that, but I thought you might want to use some of it.

Also, surprisingly I found the other video that I recorded in April. (I thought my daughter deleted it). It isn't nearly as in depth as the other recording, but it does show consistency, & their attempts to get me to falsify information. If you want to hear this recording, just let me know! Then you can decide if you want to use it. I'm assuming you probably will. I hope this is even more helpful!

Thanks again!

AFFIDAVIT OF [redacted]

STATE OF FLORIDA
COUNTY OF LEON

[redacted], first being duly sworn, deposes and states that she is over the age of 18 years and is a resident of the State of Florida and testifies as follows of her own personal knowledge:

1. I am 53 years old. I own and operate my own frame shop. I am a resident of Tallahassee, Florida.

2. Beginning [date – approximately July 1?] and continuing through today, I have received numerous calls to my cell phone from callers claiming to be with "American Medical Services." The callers are trying to get me to sign up for a legal settlement of $30,000-$40,000 for bladder sling surgery.

3. Every caller speaks with an Indian accent. All but two of the callers have been men. In each call, I hear telemarketing noises in the background. It sounds like multiple other people in the background are also talking on the phone.

4. The callers always provided American-sounding names (such as Jason, Jonathan, Franklin, etc.) when introducing themselves.

5. Each call starts out with the caller saying they are from American Medical Services. The caller asks if I have ever had a bladder sling or taken antidepressants. I did have my gallbladder removed when I was 18 years old, which they apparently knew about from the beginning since they mentioned it in the first calls. I have since explained to numerous callers that no, I had my gallbladder removed when I was 18 but I have never used any of the products they mentioned. The callers emphasize the bladder sling.

6. One of the callers asked me if I had a mother or sister or aunt who had a bladder sling.

7. When I told one caller that I had not used any of the products, he told me not to worry and that he was going to let her talk to somebody else. He said that other person would ask me five questions to qualify for the $30-40,000 in settlement money. He said this other person would give me the answers to these questions.

8. Numerous callers have suggested that I lie to qualify for the money. They frequently say "wouldn't you like to have $30-40,000." When I tell them I have never had mesh, they say "that's ok, wouldn't you like $30,000?" I tell them that that would be lying and I am not entitled to that money. I have had two women call me and both hung up when I said I was not entitled to the money, while many of the male callers have heard me say that I am not entitled and stayed on to encourage me to lie.

9. Twice I have been transferred from the initial caller to a second caller who tried to ask me the same questions. I cut them off and told them if I took that money I would be stealing, that I am not entitled to it and that to ask me to lie would be wrong. I said this to other callers as well. When I said this, the callers would frequently hang up on me. One time I told the caller I would call the police and he hung up on me.

10. The conversation never got far enough that the callers would identify specific attorneys involved with the settlement.

11. I was able to call several of the numbers back after receiving the unsolicited calls. However, I recently attempted to call them back again and the numbers all seem to have been disconnected.

12. I have received calls from the following numbers on the following dates and times:

Phone Number	Date and Time of Call

DECLARATION OF DAWN M. COMBS

I, Dawn M. Combs, hereby declare:

1. I am a resident and citizen of Charleston, West Virginia.

2. My husband, Philip Combs, is attorney of record for Ethicon, Inc. and Johnson & Johnson in this case.

3. On November 10, 2014, I received two calls from the number 727-324-6552. The caller identification indicated that these calls were from Clearwater, Florida.

5. The first caller asked to speak with Dawn Combs.

6. The second caller asked to speak with my husband, Philip Combs.

7. The callers claimed that they had information that a lady in my family had undergone a bladder sling surgery or a mesh implant surgery. They also asked if I had undergone mesh sling surgery.

8. The callers indicated that women who had undergone mesh sling surgery and had complications had received compensation. The callers wanted me to provide information to them so that I could receive money from a "class action lawsuit."

9. The callers indicated that "you don't have to say anything" to get the compensation and asked to send me more information.

10. The second caller told me he had gotten my name from a "U.S. commercial database."

11. I told the callers I was not interested and did not want to be contacted further.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct and is executed in Charleston, West Virginia, on November 12, 2014.

Affidavit D

AFFIDAVIT OF [redacted]

STATE OF FLORIDA
COUNTY OF MIAMI-DADE

[redacted], first being duly sworn, deposes and states that she is over the age of 18 years and is a resident of the State of Florida and testifies as follows of her own personal knowledge:

1. I am 52 years old. I am a registered nurse with a master's degree in nursing. I am a resident of Cutler Bay, Florida.

2. Beginning around January of 2014, I began receiving unsolicited phone calls to my cell phone. The callers know my name and tell me that I could receive money from a lawsuit over vaginal mesh surgery. I have never had vaginal mesh surgery. I have repeatedly told the callers that I have not had the surgery, but they continue to call.

3. When the calls have come in, they frequently do not show a number on caller ID. Sometimes, they have shown a number that looks foreign.

4. When I received the first few calls, I thought it was an accident. I told the callers to take me off whatever list they had me on. When the calls kept coming, I thought it must be a scam and started hanging up on the callers.

5. The callers identify themselves as being from different organizations, using names that suggest they are calling from government agencies. Sometimes they say they are from the Medical Compensation Department, sometimes the Federal Medical Department.

6. On approximately June 19, 2014, I received one of these calls and asked the caller who he worked for. He told me he worked for Johnson & Johnson.

7. All of the callers have a thick foreign accent that sounds Indian. The background noises during the calls make me think they are calling from a call center.

8. The first few calls I received were from a male caller. Then a female caller called me a several times. Then I began receiving calls from a different male caller.

9. I have asked several times to speak to a supervisor; each time I asked this, my call was disconnected. The one time I was able to speak to a supervisor, the supervisor provided me with the same English name the initial caller had given me, and when I confronted him about what an unlikely coincidence it was that he and his employee had the exact same name, he hung up on me.

10. When the calls first started, I received approximately one phone call a week. Now I receive approximately one to three calls a month. The calls have come during the day and late at evening, on weekdays or weekends.

11. On July 16, 2014, at 12:13 p.m., I received a similar unsolicited call from a female caller. My caller ID identified this call as coming from (863) 517-3025.

12. The female caller spoke with an Indian accent. It sounded like she was calling from a noisy call center. She said she was calling from the Family Health Care Department and that she was calling about medical compensation.

13. The female caller said that her name was Diana Johnson. I asked her what number I could call her back at, and she provided (863) 517-3025.

14. The female caller asked me if I or a family member had pelvic mesh, then went through a list of possible things I or a family member may have had problems with, including bladder surgery, mesh, Tylenol, steroids, antidepressants, and Risperdal. When I responded no to all of the above, she said "ok, good bye."

Executed this 18 day of July, 2014.

1. I was implanted with an Ethicon pelvic mesh device in February 16, 2010. I have had no problems with the device and I have not sued Ethicon or Johnson & Johnson over any alleged complications associated with the mesh. I have not retained a lawyer and do not wish to retain a lawyer to sue Ethicon or Johnson & Johnson about the mesh device.

2. Dr. [redacted] was my surgeon and performed the surgery at [redacted]. I discussed the risks associated with the surgery and device with my surgeon and subsequently decided to have the surgery.

3. Since January 30, 2014, I have received over 50 phone calls from different people asking me to sign up for a lawsuit concerning Johnson & Johnson's mesh devices. Some of them have told me that I am already represented and that I am owed or could be owed money because of the mesh device.

4. These persons generally speak with a foreign accent; specifically they sound as if they might be from India.

5. I have received phone calls from the following numbers:

6. When I have asked for their information, two groups have identified themselves:
    a. Human Health Consulting or Consultants
    b. Sentinel Law Group
    c. Medical Health Center

7. The persons on the phone advised me that I had been implanted with a Johnson & Johnson mesh. When I asked them how they knew that private information, they told me that Johnson & Johnson had given them the information. I have since been advised that this is not true.

8. I called the hospital privacy officer, [redacted] at [redacted] and was advised that (1) I was implanted with an Ethicon mesh and (2) the hospital did not release my information.

9. The persons on the phone have refused to send me any information in the mail or give me any other details. They have been continually harassing me to either file a lawsuit about the mesh or join an already-existing lawsuit. I have repeatedly asked them to stop contacting me.

10. I have informed the Better Business Bureau about this matter and was advised that they were unable to take any steps to help me.

Executed this 25 day of Feb., 2014.

Affidavit F

AFFIDAVIT OF [redacted]

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF SAN BERNARDINO

[redacted], first being duly sworn, deposes and states that she is over the age of 18 years and is a resident of the State of California and testifies as follows of her own personal knowledge:

1. I am 59 years old. I am retired from a civilian law enforcement position and have been a resident of Rancho Cucamonga, California for approximately 25 years.

2. Beginning around February of 2014, I began receiving unsolicited phone calls on both my landline and cellular telephones soliciting my participation in a class action lawsuit related to TVT surgery I had in 2003. The caller asked for me by name and knew I had undergone the surgery.

3. Each call was from a man with a thick accent that sounded Middle Eastern. I am not certain but I think it was the same man calling each time. He claimed he was calling from "Medical Healthcare." During other calls, he claimed he was calling from "U.S. Health Works." Many times, the person calling identified himself as 'Kevin with U.S. Healthworks."

4. At first I received a call every few days. The frequency of the calls increased and sometimes I received two or three calls in a single day.

5. During the first call, the caller knew my name and knew about my surgery. I was very concerned that someone I did not know had access to my private medical information. I asked where he got my information. He refused to tell me. From the start of the calls until June 23, 2014, none of the callers would tell me where they got my medical information.

6. The caller repeatedly told me I would qualify for a lawsuit if I needed an additional follow-up surgery, had constant pain and discomfort, and my bladder sling did not work. The caller insisted that I join the class action lawsuit. He said that if I qualified, he would transfer me to a paralegal to talk about the case. Through several calls, I told the caller that none of those things were true. In response, he would tell me I did not qualify and end the conversation.

7. Approximately one month after I received the first call, I began documenting the time of the calls and what number appeared on the caller ID.

Affidavit G

AFFIDAVIT OF [redacted]

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF DARLINGTON

[redacted], first being duly sworn, deposes and states that she is over the age of 18 years and is a resident of the State of South Carolina and testifies as follows of her own personal knowledge:

1. I have lived in Darlington for approximately 15 years, and lived in the Florence and Darlington area for approximately 22 years. I am employed as a private caregiver for the elderly and have previously worked in doctor's office.

2. Beginning approximately in approximately July of 2014 and continuing until approximately September 1, 2014, I received calls on a daily basis from a man who identified himself as "Mr. Davis" from the FDA. "Mr. Davis" typically calls between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.

3. "Mr. Davis" told me that the FDA had a settlement for me for $25,000 from Johnson & Johnson. "Mr. Davis" said he has been calling women who have had the mesh or the sling, and said Johnson & Johnson is paying $25,000 to people who have had these surgeries. He told me he was a mediator between Johnson & Johnson and me. He said the lawyer he uses is "Albert Lazo."

4. "Mr. Davis" told me that to get the settlement I had to buy a Green Dot Moneypak from the pharmacy, put $150 on it, and provide him with the number on the back of the card. He said that once I provided him with that information, I would receive the settlement money through Western Union within an hour or so.

5. "Mr. Davis" knew detailed information about surgeries I have had, including detailed information about a surgery I had last year. I did not provide him with any of that information and do not know where or how he obtained this information.

6. Almost all of the calls from "Mr. Davis" have come from the phone number (646) 340-8616. One or two calls came from a number that also began (646) 340; I do not have the rest of the number available.

7. "Mr. Davis" speaks with an Indian accent. On one call, I heard someone else talking in the background; it sounded like that other person was also talking on the phone.

8. I have called the (646) 340-8616 number and "Mr. Davis" answered the phone and identified himself as being with the FDA.

9. One time I called the (646) 340-8616 number and another person, who had a lighter Indian accent than "Mr. Davis," answered the phone and said the accounting office was closed but would open again in 15 minutes.

10. In approximately August 2014, I called Albert Lazo's office and was told that they do not have me in their files. I also did a reverse lookup on the phone number (646) 340-8166 and contacted the phone company to let them know that scammers were using the phone number to try to scam people. I continued to receive daily phone calls from the number after alerting the phone company.

11. On October 7, 2014, I received a call from the same number from a man identifying himself as "Eric Miller." This man also spoke with a thick Indian accent. During the call, I could hear what sounded like another man speaking on a telephone in the background. "Eric Millers" claimed that he was from New York and was calling from the FDA on behalf of Johnson & Johnson. He said he was working with Johnson & Johnson's attorneys. He told me he was working with Albert Lazo law firm. I told him I thought he was calling from a scam, I told him I thought it was. He asked me to put $150 on a Green Dot Moneypak and said he was not trying to steal that money from me, they just needed that on the card as a transfer fee. I told him I had talked with Johnson & Johnson's attorney and knew that he was just a scam.

12. I asked "Eric Miller" to send me an e-mail to confirm his identity. Shortly thereafter, on October 7, 2014, I received an e-mail from the e-mail address fda.gov4@gmail.com. I forwarded a true and accurate copy of the e-mail to an attorney working for Johnson & Johnson and a true and accurate copy of that e-mail as I forwarded it is attached as Exhibit A to this Affidavit. Attached to the e-mail was a Microsoft Word document signed by a "Peter Williams" and bearing an "FDA" logo. A true and accurate copy of the substance of that Microsoft Word document is attached as Exhibit B to this Affidavit. That document was addressed to a [redacted] and said that the "company is ready to pay you 25000$" and lists a "150$" transfer fee that must be paid to receive compensation.

13. On October 7, 2014, I called the law offices of Albert Lazo and said I received another call regarding the mesh lawsuits. The receptionist at the law office said she did not know what I was talking about and said she documented that I had received the solicitation call.
